

GUIDELINES FOR COMPLETING THE AFFIDAVIT

The attached affidavit requires a detailed explanation in your own words, of exactly what happened during this incident.

Your statement needs to include specific facts about WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, WHY, AND HOW.

Accurately describe events in order of occurrence. Specify, if applicable, what type of weapon was used, right or left hand, open or closed fist, color of clothing or vehicle, what was stolen, resulting damage, what were the exact statements made by the suspect, etc.

Try to avoid general terms like "head" and "body". Tell exactly where physical injuries were sustained, i.e. right cheek, stomach, left rib cage, upper right thigh, etc.

The affidavit must be in your own words. The police officer can assist you in clarifying guidelines, but cannot tell you what to write.
